58 infants "died suddenly":

A note from our researcher: I am sure readers have noticed the increasing number of infants in the weekly compilations. Mothers are also noticing that something is off. Check out the comment about the number of local SIDS deaths this mother has observed:

Tragic Loss Of DJ Ann Bratcher "Donut" Due To S.I.D.S

January 18, 2025

Caneyville, KY – DJ Ann Bratcher "Donut" was the best daughter, sister, and granddaughter anybody could've asked for. Sadly, on January 16th at 7:00 am, she was taken from us due to SIDS (Sudden Infant Death Syndrome). Our family has been having a hard time due to the loss of her, and a helping hand would mean the world to us. More than 3 babies in our area have passed away due to SIDS recently.

Bia Nicole, our sleeping angel

January 18, 2025

Scottsboro, AL – Late in the evening on Sunday January 12, 2025 I noticed I hadn't feel my baby kick in me for the last few hours and I started to grow concern. At 39 weeks 6 days at the time, I was so anxious but so prepared to meet my sweet baby girl and decided to go in to labor and delivery to get checked out hoping maybe she was just extra comfortable there and running out of room. That trip that I hoped to be no big deal turned into finding out about 1:30 Monday morning, that my baby no longer had a heartbeat. After everything up until this point in my pregnancy being nearly perfect, all the scans, bloodwork, testing everything on paper was as close to perfect as they could be. After the preparation, buying matching outfits and bows and little socks, setting everything to be just perfect for her, going into crazy nesting mama mode for things to be just right for my first baby girl, it all just got taken from me in the blink of an eye. I delivered my perfect Bia Nicole Hammonds on Tuesday night, January 14th at 10:30 pm after labor for 2 days knowing the ultimate outcome was I would never get to watch my baby grow or see her little eyes or feel her little heartbeat outside of me. There is no words or anything anyone can say or do to take this pain from me and her father and our entire families. This baby was loved and longed for for so long and Bia took a piece of all of us with her.

Give Jade Elizabeth the Farewell She Deserves

January 18, 2025

Mount Holly, NJ – My name is Blare Hall and I have started this donation to help with unexpected burial arrangements for my daughter, Jade Elizabeth. When I was 20 weeks pregnant, I found out that Jade was diagnosed with a heart issue called Tretology of Fallot. I started seeing the doctors at CHOP in Philadelphia. The doctors monitored closely, going back and forth two times a week. They told me she would need surgery after birth. I gave birth by c-section on January 2, 2025. Jade had her surgery on January 10, 2025, but was still struggling after her surgery. Jade passed away on January 14, 2025 with both her parents by her side, leaving her brothers, Jeremiah (13) and Joshua (9), very confused as to why their baby sister never came home.

Swayze Ann Sanderson, 2

January 17, 2025

Ripley, Mississippi – Swayze Ann Sanderson was born into this world on January 27, 2023, and ran into the arms of Jesus on January 9, 2025. The Lord blessed Josh and A with a beautiful baby girl after six years of heartache and struggle. As always, He was right on time. Swayze brought great joy to her parents and her big brother “Ett.”

Researcher's Note - A Facebook post from 1/10 indicated that the 2-year old may have passed in the hospital: Our nurse last night moved a hospital bed in so we could move Swayze to sleep in it and sleep with her. Josh and I rotated turns. It was the best sleep we had gotten since this started. The atmosphere was different in her room this morning. The playlist was going with the same songs, but instead of the miraculous healing being the message I was hearing, it was of stillness, quiet, and waiting. "Just wait" is what I heard audibly the other day. Today, I understood what waiting meant. It meant basking in his presence, praying on my knees beside a hospital bed pleading for my girl's life, and knowing He is moving in His people. Link

I have very much noticed the increase in infant and young children deaths reported here. I never had the stomach to read them. But I did today, here. Imagine if these deaths had been investigated, what would be learned, and the children who would be saved from actions taken and not taken (NO JABS FOR MOTHERS AND BABIES). The day the FDA approved EUA for 6-12 years I cried. When they then moved it down finally to 6 months I cried more. Now when I learn of any covid case, I know who's pregnant, I just have a certain contained horror, I'm steeling myself for tragedy. I know somewhere that only 1% of mothers are now taking the covid shots during pregnancy. Have no idea if that's true. Of course, these pregnant women are taking all kinds of other vaccines and flu shots which is f**king bonkers. And then they're giving their 6 month old babies the shots, repeating the cycle the next year. MCM, thank you for your constancy in reporting the news of these deaths.

I can only wonder what the level of under-reporting is, especially for babies. And I wonder how many babies are severely ill. This is appalling and is NOT normal.
